

Our Services

Our services are priced very competitively within the information technology marketplace. We believe IT consulting is all about assessing technologies from a myriad of options and selecting innovative and best solutions that meets your business objectives and ensure long term value. Our solutions help you organize business and technology strategies - cost effectively. Our projects stay on time, on budget, and receive the most praise within our industry. With services covering a whole spectrum within this domain – ranging from fresh Software development to maintenance & support and Quality Assurance. All our processes are designed to offer our customers a service that exceeds their expectation, delivered on time, at the right cost. Specialist Areas

- Business and IT Consultancy
- Software Development
- Installation and Project Management
- Engineering
- Service Contracts
- Website Design & Development
- Web application programming
- Search Engine Optimization & E-marketing strategies
- database & Network Solution
- IT Security
- Encryption device
- Surveillance and Counter Surveillance Equipment
- Spy Consultancy
- Financial Solutions
- General Trading
- E-Government
- E-Procurement
- E-Commerce
- IT & Management Training

Alliances and Partners A partnership with Ciptakarya is a mutually beneficial relationship. Our program provides clearly defined requirements and benefits, as well as a range of options. This means you can find a partnership arrangement that works best for your business. strategic partners Ciptakarya believes in doing what is best for the client. We know the areas where we excel and where others are more suited to meet our client's needs in an effort to ensure you receive the highest level of services without having to worry about being oversold, we have formed alliances with a number of major technology companies.