

Support and Service Contracts

In addition to the cover provided by manufacturers' warranties on equipment, it is essential to put in place service contracts to ensure that your business is never at risk from breakdown or catastrophic loss. Profile can offer you annual or longer term hardware maintenance and network service contracts to give you total peace of mind. But we also arrange managed services contracts to provide continuous and proactive monitoring, auditing and optimisation of your network.