

Software

As you would expect, Profile will install and service the operational, management, security and application software needed for your network. This includes all of the Microsoft products, such as Windows, SQL, Office, Terminal Services, but also Citrix, and best of breed virus, SPAM and firewall protection. Our service contracts will cover the continual monitoring and optimisation of these products.